

ShurFoot

ShurFoot is an anti-slip floor graphic coating that has been specifically designed for both commercial and industrial applications. This coating is intended for use with all approved floor graphic vinyl base films. It is a UV screen printable coating that when printed last down, eliminates costly anti-slip floor graphic laminating films and does away with the slow laminating process.

ShurFoot is a non-glare; satin coating that provides excellent contact clarity while providing a safe aesthetic look. ShurFoot is compatible with most inkjet ink systems and can be used with both solvent and UV based screen printing inks.

ShurFoot provides excellent footing, even in the most inclement conditions. ShurFoot can also be used for counter mats, mouse pads or menu graphics applications as well.
